

In 2003
Department of Computer and Information Sciences at
Indiana University South Bend
Received an Equipment Grant from McGraw-Hill

$3400.00

The department purchased a laptop, a projection unit and a digital camera with this grant. This equipment is used by our faculty to improve their class presentations.

The equipment grant is used to support the educational mission of our department.